Primary school of Vamvakou, Farsala, Greece

The six-grade Primary School of Vamvakou Farsala is located in a picturesque rural area of the Municipality of Farsala, in the heart of Thessaly. Vamvakou is a small village with a rich agricultural tradition, known for cotton cultivation and other farming products. The school offers a welcoming and safe learning environment, emphasizing the holistic development of its students. The school participates in various programs and activities that enhance environmental awareness and social interaction among students. The teachers work passionately to create a school environment that promotes active participation and innovation.

Scuola “Fogazzaro” di Bosentino, Italy

Scuola “Fogazzaro” di Bosentino

Our primary school got its name from Antonio Fogazzaro, an important Italian poet and writer. It is located in a small village among the Dolomiti mountains, in northern Italy, about 20km from Trento, the biggest city in our region. It's one of the three primary schools within the Institute. Currently this small school is housed in a temporary location due to ongoing renovations in the original building which is expected to be ready in a couple of years. The students attending this school are between 6 and 11 years old. They study two foreign languages: German and English. Here there are 6 classes, 15 teachers and about 80 students.

Dolyna Lyceum 6 “European” is located in the picturesque town of Dolyna in western Ukraine. The institution was founded in 1974. There are currently 822 students studying there.

The highlight of the educational process of the institution is the participation of teachers in international educational projects of eTwinning and cooperation with educational institutions of Germany “Goethe Institute”, Poland, Estonia.

Thanks to the diligent and dedicated work of the teachers, who imparted deep knowledge to their students, many of the school’s graduates have gone on to receive higher education and become highly qualified engineers, economists, doctors, teachers, lawyers, journalists, scientists, and what is known as the Ukrainian elite. Many of them joined the struggle for the Ukrainian independent state, its establishment and development.

Dumbravita Secondary School, Timis County, Romania

DUMBRAVITA SECONDARY SCHOOL, TIMIS COUNTY

The Dumbravita Secondary School is an institution that was built in 1892, at the time that the Austro-Hungarian influence was still felt in our country. There are still Hungarian dedicated classes for the few native Hungarian speakers.

Our school prides herself with an inclusive educational environment in which over 1100 students study. The school is also Erasmus + certified, our teachers participating in several courses that were held in different countries.

Multiculturalism is one of the aims of our school, by promoting and involving students of the two communities to participate in inclusive activities of literature, art, drama and pageants.
