

About Us.

Still Detox - Alcohol & Drug Rehab & Detox in Palm Beach County, FL

offers a structured setting where adults can begin stabilization and learn practical tools for long-term recovery. As a Boca Raton rehabilitation center, the team provides medically supervised detox for alcohol and substances, including alcohol detox, opioid detox, and broader drug detox. After detox, individuals may enter inpatient treatment or residential treatment with options for dual diagnosis treatment when mental health and substance use overlap. Care plans often blend medication-assisted treatment with evidence-based therapies such as cognitive behavioral therapy, dialectical behavior therapy, individual therapy, and group therapy. Programming also focuses on relapse prevention and aftercare planning to help people return to daily routines with support. For those searching for a rehabilitation center near me, this location serves local neighborhoods and commuters who prefer consistent, face-to-face sessions. As a Boca Raton drug rehab, it aims to coordinate care with outside providers when needed and guide families on how to support healthy boundaries in Boca Raton, Florida.
